

Fosters Solicitors is ranked as a Top Tier firm in the region by The Legal 500 UK, with our team offering a range of fixed-fee services, that makes representation by us an affordable and cost-effective solution to obtaining the best advice possible regarding any allegation you may face, including motoring matters.

INITIAL CONSULTATION – £225 PLUS VAT

A private consultation with one of our solicitors, with more than three decades of experience between them in dealing with your type of case.

By the end of the appointment you will have received advice about the following:

- The allegation you face.
- The evidence against you.
- Your options as to plea.
- Court procedures and timescales.
- Possible outcomes including sentence.

You will leave the appointment with enough information to conduct the process yourself (if you are considering doing so) and details of further options for representation should you wish.

CONSULTATION AND REPRESENTATION – £1,220 PLUS VAT

This option provides you with all of the advice included in the initial consultation listed above, and the additional peace of mind that one of our experienced advocates will be by your side for the initial court appearance, including:

- Consideration of the evidence specific to your case.
- Taking of your detailed instructions.
- Liaison with the prosecution.
- Advice and further preparation.
- All advocacy and presentation of your case by an experienced solicitor and Higher Court Advocate.
- A full explanation of the outcome, the consequences for you and an answer to any further queries you may have.

In addition, this option includes all waiting time at court. If the hearing is delayed or the court requires you to wait, no additional fees are payable by you.

EXCLUSIONS

The packages above do not include travel costs associated with travelling to courts outside of Norwich, trials, exceptional hardship or special reasons arguments.

They do include advice on where those issues may relate to your case and we can help tailor a fixed-fee package for those options following initial consultation.

These types of packages are likely to range in price between £1,295 plus VAT and £1,795 plus VAT, or for trials up to one day between £2,495 plus VAT and £2,995 plus VAT.

We deal with cases across England and Wales for which our initial fee packages will apply, but with additional costs, depending on the amount of travel and/or expenses that may be associated with the case.

For more advice please contact us on 01603 723717, or email our team.